

Order Halt of Public Housing

Take it from Here

THE CITY'S annual "house cleaning" effort will kick off April 27 with local merchants descending on downtown streets and sidewalks in Holland style, armed with scrub buckets, brooms, brushes and hoses.

"The city's winter cobwebs gotta go," is the word spread by the chamber of commerce, sponsor of the clean-up, fix-up and paint-up campaign.

THOSE COBWEBS, Bill Thompson, chairman of the drive more literally points out, include all scrap paper and tin cans and any other trash unable to be disposed of by store and home owners during the winter.

And store owners, especially, are urged by the chamber to attack the interiors of their business houses with broom and dust cloth. They can take a lesson from the missus' current activities in the home.

The campaign will continue for one week. To aid residents in house and yard tidying, the chamber has arranged to have a pick-up of trash made by city trucks.

THE TRASH pickup on the north side of the river will start April 27. It will move to the south side April 30.

The trucks will not return to any home for a pickup once they have passed, so home-owners must have rubbish waiting on the curbs when the pickup is launched.

The street department, headed by Joe Vaile, commissioner, and Clarence Vaile, superintendent, is cooperating in the city-wide drive for a cleaner and neater Dixon.

THE GIRL SCOUTS will lend a feminine touch to the campaign, depositing cards on door knobs in the residential section, reminding residents of the trash pickup.

You can be a booster, too, with one of the 1,000 lapel pins promoting the campaign, available in downtown stores. Many of the pins will be distributed to local organizations for their members.

And stores, factories and even trucks and busses will be displaying clean-up, fix-up, paint-up streamers.

THE CAMPAIGN can do much to bring Dixon the breath of spring that only a tidy lawn, street, home and store can inspire. And it can reduce many a fire hazard that has developed in basements and store rooms during the winter.

It also can produce many a chuckle if you're on hand at 9:30 a.m. April 27 when merchants roll up their pantslegs, bend a knobby knee and start scrubbing streets and sidewalks.

U. S. Drives Home Peace Offensive

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower's challenge to Russia on world peace and armament reduction is only the opening round in an all-out "peace offensive."

A White House official, who asked not to be named, told reporters today the administration already has launched "the greatest drive in history" to bring pressure on the Soviet Union to subscribe to an effective plan for world peace.

Talking to newsmen after Eisenhower returned to his Augusta vacation headquarters, a White House official indicated that Secretary of State Dulles might strike the same theme when he addresses the ASNE Saturday night.

Takes Pills, Dies

GENEVA, Ill. (AP)—A 5-year-old boy, who told his parents he swallowed quinine and sulfa pills he found while playing died today.

He was Rex Allen Gehl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mohn Gehl, who live two miles east of Geneva. His parents said the boy related he found the pills in the home Thursday.

RIDE 'EM DODO—If monkey see, monkey do, there will be an awful lot of monkeys riding cocker spaniels as Dodo, the monkey, is riding Biddie, the cocker spaniel above. Both animals belong to the children of William Rink. Shown here are Dick (left) and John (Smoky). Dodo has been riding Biddie and Boots (another cocker spaniel) almost constantly since adopting the idea two months ago.

Hoppy, Roy Have Nothing on Dodo, Clever Monkey in Dixon

This is the story of two dogs and a clever little monkey.

About two months ago, Dodo, a cinnamon tailed monkey belonging to Bill John (Smoky), Dick and Mary Rink of Dixon, apparently got tired of doing his own walking.

The clever monk apparently figured if you don't walk, and you want to get somewhere, the best thing to do is ride. Not being old enough to apply for a driver's license and not having a car anyway, Dodo looked around for a suitable substitute.

Spies Dogs

"Aha," he may have thought as he spied a pair of cocker spaniels, Biddie and Boots. "There is the answer. I'll board them and put Hopalong Cassidy, Roy Rogers and the rest to shame."

So it was that Biddie and Boots, who also belong to the Rink children, became transportation for Dodo.

The father, William Rink, told a Telegraph reporter that now Dodo rides the two dogs constantly, switching from one to the other as the spirit moves him.

"He likes to go places and must figure it is easier than walking," Rink said.

When Dodo wants to go and the dogs don't, he has been known to punch the cockers to get them into action.

Trees Interesting, Too

About the only things that persuade Dodo to climb off the dogs voluntarily are trees, eating and sleeping. "He likes to climb," Rink said.

Dodo probably right now is trying to figure a way to get the dogs to climb for him.

The Rinks came into possession of the monkey about six months ago when the former owner went to California. The children had always wanted one, Rink said, so when the chance came up, they bought Dodo.

What do the dogs think about being chauffeurs for a monkey?

"They kind of like it," Rink said. "Besides, they can't get rid of him anyway—they've tried."

EATS POISONED WIENERS—Thomas Page Eaton, two years old, sits with his two dogs, Cisco (left) and Blackjack at Houston, Tex. The boy ate poisoned wieners that were tossed into his back yard, apparently intended for the dogs. The child's mother, Mrs. Mary Eaton, 29, gave him an antidote of strong tea and burned toast and rushed him to a hospital to have his stomach pumped. Tommy's recovery was rapid. (AP wirephoto)

North Koreans Will Release 7 U.S. Civilians, Says Russia

All Seized At Outbreak Of Fighting

Russian Foreign Office Notifies American Embassy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia has notified the United States that North Korean authorities "are taking measures to release" seven American civilians seized nearly three years ago at the outbreak of hostilities.

The State Department said North Korean authorities also have sent word through Russia that three other Americans, including a Catholic bishop, are dead and three others are missing.

The Russian Foreign Office gave this information to Jacob Beam, American embassy minister, Thursday. Beam had asked Moscow two weeks ago to use its good offices in helping obtain the release of all 13 Americans believed held by North Korean authorities.

Press Officer Michael McDermott told a new conference the details and date of release have not been worked out yet. Moscow has promised to keep the Embassy informed.

Beam, acting until Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen is fully accredited in Moscow, also has requested information about the date, place and circumstances of the reported death of the three Americans.

U. S. Attache's Employe Killed By Iran Mobs

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—The U. S. naval attache's Iranian chauffeur was stabbed today in a new outbreak of anti-American violence in Iran. The attack came less than a day after Premier Mohammed Mossadegh promised security forces would prevent further incidents.

The driver, Mesrob Melikian, was knifed in the shoulder when a group of 20 men forced him to stop his car, which bore U. S. naval markings and carried diplomatic plates. The men, shouting anti-American slogans, also threw a brick through the window of the automobile. Two uniformed soldiers, apparently off duty, tried unsuccessfully to halt the attack.

Melikian was driving to the home of the attache, Eric Pollard of Oakland, Calif., to pick up Pollard's baggage when the incident occurred.

Investigate Attacks

Pollard and two other U. S. officials were flying to Shiraz, Southwest Iran, to investigate Communist attacks on U. S. Point Four offices and personnel there.

Mossadegh Thursday night expressed Iran's regrets for the attacks to U. S. Ambassador Loy Henderson and Point Four Director William E. Warne. He told them that martial law has been declared in Shiraz and order restored.

The American authorities asked for protection and an investigation after 38 Americans, including women and children, took refuge from mobs in an Iranian official's house at Shiraz. Led by Reds, crowds had attacked the offices of the American technical assistance program Wednesday night and then tried to invade American homes Thursday.

U. S. officials reported no Americans were injured.

Half-Million Cattle on Feed

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Illinois farmers had a half million cattle and calves on feed April 1, the federal-state agricultural departments said today.

Farmers indicated they intended to market 60,000 head in April, 77,000 in May and June and the remainder after July 1.

SHE PLAYS AGAIN—Four-year-old Linda Rae Decubellis is grinning big and swinging high as she plays in the backyard of her home at Jacksonville, Fla. She is the young lady whose heart stopped during a tonsil operation last March. Dr. Eugene D. Simmons, who said she was "dead as a door-nail," quickly cut open her chest and massaged her heart until she revived. (AP wirephoto)

Find 23 Dead In Chicago Factory Fire

Death Toll May Reach 30 When Search Complete

CHICAGO (AP)—The toll of known dead in a terrifying explosion and fire which turned factory workers into flaming human torches mounted today as the search for victims continued.

Firemen have found 23 bodies in the collapsed shell of a four-story brick industrial plant destroyed in Thursday's blaze. Eleven other plant employees are listed as missing.

As wrecking crews worked around the clock to knock down tottering walls in the North Side factory, firemen dug through tangled debris in their search, now in its second day.

The search parties were spurred on by the belief that more bodies lie hidden under a collapsed stairway in the basement of the building.

Police Capt. Robert Ryan said the death toll might reach "at least 30" but a factory spokesman said some of the missing may have escaped. Those on the list of missing were employees known to have been in the building when it exploded in flames.

At hospitals, some of the workmen burned in the wind-whipped inferno were in critical condition. Many employees leaped in screaming panic, their clothing in flames within minutes after the fire broke out.

Leland Man to Pay $20 Monthly In Crash Damages

A Leland, Ill., man will have to pay a Dixon woman $20 a month damages for more than eight years, according to an order today of Circuit Court Judge Robert Bracken.

Russell E. Buckart, Leland, was ordered to pay the amount in installments on a $2,000 judgment against him resulting from an accident approximately two years ago involving his car.

The money will go to Miss Marion Gibbs, 702 First st., who was injured on May 18, 1951, when Buckart's car, driven by Phyllis Shuppert, S. College av., Dixon, struck her as she was crossing Monroe avenue at First street.

The $2,000 judgment was directed in 1952, after a jury had considered Miss Gibbs' suit seeking $5,000 damages.

Buckart had previously requested that the court set the installment payments at $10 a month, but since it would take too long to make full payment, he agreed to double the amount.

Red Press 'Kind' to President

Comment in Moscow Press Shows Lack Of Usual Criticism

By EDDIE GILMORE

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet press reported President Eisenhower's foreign policy speech with unusual speed and a lack of abuse.

Some of the foreign diplomats in Moscow believe there is a good chance of some sort of official answer to the President. The more optimistic picture the U. S. and the Soviet Union as on the verge of easing world tension and possibly settling some of their outstanding differences.

Act Quickly

In 10 years of covering Moscow news, this correspondent does not recall any time when the Soviet press acted so quickly as in reporting Eisenhower's address. Pravda appeared with its account only a few hours after the President addressed the American Society of Newspaper Editors Thursday.

The Soviet press and radio devoted 561 words of report and comment on Eisenhower's speech, indicating they regard it as an interesting and important statement on world affairs.

All papers published the same story—a Tass dispatch from New York and Moscow radio read the message several times.

Pravda gave it a prominent place in its foreign news page, just below an account of U. N. proceedings. The other papers similarly used it in conspicuous positions.

No Praise

Neither press nor radio praised the President's speech, but neither did they condemn it out of hand.

Commenting on it, Tass said Eisenhower in blaming the Soviet Union for the international situation failed to cite any facts to back up his contention. The dispatch also accused the President of bypassing China and "reestablishment of her national rights" and the question of a unified Germany as laid down by the Potsdam agreement.

The papers were singularly in comment.

Administrator Named in Will

Letters of administration were issued Thursday to William A. Kehoe, of Amboy, in the $28,000 estate of the late Joseph W. Kieba, of Sublette.

Kieba died in Sublette on April 8, 1953 leaving no will. His estate amounts to $13,000 in personal property, and $15,000 in real estate.

Heirs are two sisters, Catherine Kieba, of Sublette, and Sister Charitas, Milwaukee, Wis.

Many Teachers Miss Pay Hike, Spokesman Says

A representative of the Dixon Teachers Association today asserted in a statement to The Telegraph that "a very large" percentage of teachers here with four and five-year college training will not receive salary hikes voted this week by the board of education.

Miss Ada H. West, welfare committee chairman of the association, said nearly 20 teachers in the high school alone who have the specified training will not receive salary increases because they previously qualified for the maximum salary approved by the board Wednesday night.

Vote $200

The board voted $200 pay raises to teachers with four and five-year training whose salary would not exceed $4,200 in the former category and $4,400 in the latter class as result of the increases.

It was reported Thursday that the salary hikes would include all teachers with four and five-year training.

According to the new salary schedules, teachers with four-year

DIES SUICIDE AFTER MASS MURDERS—Police said Peter Akulonis, 39-year-old tinsmith, butchered and shot to death seven and possibly eight members of his family in Lawrence, Mass., and adjoining Methuen, Mass. The seven-hour death spree came to an end when Akulonis took his own life as police closed in on him outside his home in Methuen. (AP wirephoto)

Dixon Student Wins Illinois Elks' Award

Don D. Reeder, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Reeder, of 812 N. Ottawa av., was selected today as one of 11 high school students to share $2,500 in scholarship prizes in the Illinois Elks association's annual "most valuable student" contest.

Reeder will receive one of the four $100 prizes on the basis of his high school record. He is the top senior at the Dixon high school and is a member of band and dramatics. He also has participated in high school sports.

Students are selected for the honors on the basis of biography on contestants submitted to the fraternal association for judging.

There were 56 student applications. Three Illinois students won $400 awards. There was one $300 winner; three $200 awards, and four $100 prizes.

The four top winners will receive the awards on May 23 at the Illinois Elks convention in Rock Island. The other winners will receive theirs from lodges in their home town areas.

The three top winners will be entered in the Elks National Foundation scholarship set-up to compete for scholarships ranging from $100 to $900.

Vernon L. Nickell, state superintendent of public instruction, was chairman of the judges. Others were Paul Kuhn of Aurora, Judge Frank S. Bevan, of Atlanta, State Sen. Charles W. Clabaugh, of Champaign, and Judge Hubert H. Edwards, of Pontiac.

House Group Acts to Get Rid of Plan

Swing to Private Financing Seen in Committee Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—The house appropriations committee today ordered a halt to the government's low-rent housing program as it cut deeply into the 1954 budget requests of 23 federal agencies.

Its action, if sustained by Congress, also would start getting the government out of the mortgage and housing business by ordering it to dispose of home mortgages it now holds and to refund local housing bonds held by the Public Housing Administration.

Cut 61 Per Cent

By committee arithmetic 61 per cent or $721,423,697 was lopped from original Truman budget estimates of $1,172,444,190 but some Democrats described much of the cut as "phony." In the same category was a large part of an additional $1,945,472,000 the committee claimed would pour into the Treasury as a result of its recommendations. In some, but not all, cases the Truman budget was revised downward by the new administration.

The bill's total in new money for use during the fiscal year starting Next July 1 was $451,020,493, a reduction of $542,516,350 from what the same agencies received for the present fiscal year.

Largest reductions from amounts requested by former President Truman in his January budget were in funds for the Civil Service Commission and for stockpiling critical and strategic materials.

Democrats claimed, the committee's denial in full of a request for 188 million dollars to acquire strategic and critical materials is a "phony" saving, since the money probably will have to be put up later.

Has Balance

The committee said the General Services Administration, which handles the stockpiling program, will have an unobligated balance of around 457 million dollars on June 30 and can finance its 1954 program from that fund. The balance is from money appropriated in past years but not yet spent because the materials to be stockpiled haven't been available. If the program contemplated by Congress is to be carried out, Democrats said, additional appropriations will have to be made later.

The committee claimed an eventual saving of 795 million would result from its recommendation that no new public housing units be started in 1954.

Congress in 1949 authorized construction of 135,000 housing units in each of six years starting July 1, 1949. On February 28 of this year 78,182 units had been completed for occupancy, 86,177 were under construction and 8,135 had been approved for construction.

Not Justified

The committee said the housing program is not justified.

A $1,271,088,000 improvement in the Treasury's cash position was foreseen by the committee as a result of its recommendation that

Attend the Church of Your Faith Regularly

THE CURE FOR CRIME

High walls, barred windows, armed guards—is this the cure for crime?

When a disease epidemic breaks out in America, we stop at nothing to find the source of trouble. Millions are spent each year on research for infantile paralysis, tuberculosis, heart disease, cancer.

But what is our cure for crime? Our government spends millions annually for law enforcement, for the building of jails and penitentiaries, but it does little to prevent crime. Legal punishment is costly and ineffective. It is not a cure!

"Overcome evil with good." This is the only cure for the disease of crime. This is the spirit of Christ that we must nurture in the hearts of our youth. This is our hope for tomorrow—that men will learn to live by understanding and love, not by law and punishment. A better world will come only with better people.

You and your children will find the true way of life taught in the churches and church schools of America. It is the privilege and duty of all to attend church services regularly.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Training Class Meets Monday

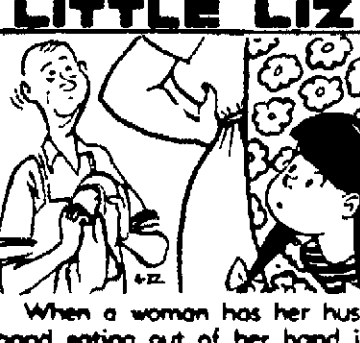

The second session of the Dixon leadership training school will be held Monday evening at the First Methodist church. The school, for workers and leaders in the local churches, is sponsored by the Dixon Council of Christian Education. According to the dean, Rev. Samuel Batt, it is still not too late to enroll for credit in the courses offered. The enrollment on the opening night was 64, representing 14 churches of 10 different denomina- tions in the Dixon area. Two courses far exceeded anticipated enrollment, and more textbooks have had to be ordered. These courses are presented for the assistance of teachers, officers of organized Sunday School classes in the local churches, and those who are leaders in various capacities.

Ninth Member Of Family Dead In Murder Orgy

LAWRENCE, Mass. (AP) — The body of the ninth member of a family axed or shot to death Wednesday was found with a bullet through the head on the edge of a sandpit in nearby Dracut Thurs- day night. He was 11-year-old Peter Akulonis jr., whose father, 39, killed eight of his closest relatives in a seven-hour orgy for no apparent reason. The father killed himself with a rifle bullet as police were about to close in on him. Young Akulonis was the object of a wide search after it was learned his father took him out of school the afternoon he killed his wife, his other son, his mother, two brothers and two nephews.

UNUSUAL ACCORD AT U. N.—It's a rare occasion when Russia and the western representatives at the United Nations find them- selves on the same side of the fence. Ernest Gross, United States delegate (left), Great Britain's P. M. C. Crosshwaite (center), and An- drew Vishinsky of Russia all vote aye on the western-backed Bra- zilian resolution in support of further Korean armistice talks at Panmunjom. The unusual agreement featured the U. N.'s 60-nation political committee meeting at New York (April 16). (AP wirephoto)

Attorney's Widow Leaves Scholarship Fund of $235,000

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—The widow of Peoria Attorney William G. Mc- Roberts, Mrs. Hattie Feger Mc- Roberts, left a $235,000 law scholar- ship fund, probate court records showed Thursday. Mrs. McRoberts, who died April 8, stated in her will that the money was to be left in trust with a Peoria bank. Under the will at least once every three years the senior cir- cuit judge of Peoria County, the president of the Peoria Bar associa- tion and a bank representative are to meet and pick a candidate.

Husband Favored Birth Control, Annulment Sought

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)— An- nulment of a 17-year-old girl's mar- riage is sought on grounds that her husband practiced birth control in opposition to edicts of the Catholic church. The complaint was filed by Mrs. Jessie W. Reed of nearby Venice as guardian of her daughter, Jo Ann Bonner. The husband, Richard Rex Bonner, 24, said he married Jo Ann Aug. 21, 1952, in a Protes- tant church but that since then his wife has been converted to Catholi- cism. Atty. Howard T. James, repre- senting Mrs. Reed and her daugh- ter, said that before the marriage Bonner said he opposed birth con- trol. But since then, the complaint alleged, Bonner's "practice and conduct" have been in direct opposi- tion to rules and edicts of the Catholic church and faith. Bonner said he would not oppose the suit.

Policy-Makers Have Seemed Unable to Foresee Reactions

With the smoke cleared, it is possible now to appraise the events surrounding the recent published reports that the Eisenhower administration would accept a division of Korea at the narrow waist of the peninsula and might favor a UN trusteeship for Formosa.

First of all, these were not irresponsible rumors. They came from a highly placed source (later identified as Secretary of State Dulles), who had talked to a number of reporters in a background conference. There was no possibility they had misunderstood him, since all their accounts were in close accord.

Nor could the source have been misinformed as to administration policy on Korea and Formosa. He was at the top, obviously.

The reporters were not at fault in divulging the subject of their conference. The rules on background meetings prescribe that the material may be used so long as it is not attributed to the source who provided it.

This leaves only two reasonable conclusions, inasmuch as the White House promptly knocked the story down. One is that Dulles committed a major error in disclosing something President Eisenhower did not wish uncovered now. The other is that the administration was floating a "trial balloon," which the White House shot out of the sky as soon as it saw the adverse congressional reaction to the Korea-Formosa proposals.

If it was the latter, then an error must be charged against the White House. For in either case the incident has done the administration no good, either abroad or at home.

Many Republicans in congress have been gunning for Dulles almost from the start. If the blame must fall upon him for this latest fracas, as most observers believe it must, then he almost certainly has made himself more vulnerable to attack. How much more of this kind of thing he can take and stay on his feet is a serious question.

And, of course, more is involved than Dulles' relations with congress and his stature with the American people. This on-and-off approach to foreign policy is thoroughly confusing to our friends abroad. The French, for instance, still prefer to believe the initial reports about dividing Korea rather than the later White House disclaimer.

If policy-making is an art, as some say, then an important part of the art is the ability to anticipate the reactions of both opposition and friendly groups to particular policies. Veteran viewers of the Washington scene agree that on two or three major occasions in foreign affairs this ability has appeared to be conspicuously lacking.

Jacoby on Canasta

It Is Illegal to Retain Red Three

By OSWALD JACOBY

"Please give me your opinion on the willful failure to expose a red three as soon as you draw it in a hand of Canasta," requests a New York correspondent.

"First, and most important, is such a practice considered unscrupulous? I understand that a penalty of 500 points is incurred when you fail to put down a red three at your first opportunity. If this is the case, why should it be considered unethical to keep a red three in your hand when you are ready and willing to pay the penalty?"

"Secondly, what advantage, if any, is there in failing to put down a red three at your first opportunity?"

It is indeed considered unethical to hold a red three in your hand deliberately instead of putting it down at your first opportunity. This sort of thing may happen accidentally, but it should never be done deliberately.

Deliberate violation of any law of the game is considered unethical. One reason for this view is that utter chaos can result if the laws are deliberately flouted.

The penalty of 500 points is intended to compensate the innocent side for any losses they may have suffered when an opponent fails to put down a red three promptly. The fact that the offender is ready to pay the penalty does not, however, give him full license to break the rule.

If we make the comparison between the game of Canasta and our normal everyday life, the point will be quite clear. A lawbreaker may be perfectly willing to go to jail for his crime if he is caught, but he will still suffer a loss of reputation.

The chief advantage of concealing a red three lies in giving the opponents a mistaken idea of the red three situation. This may induce them to meld out when they should play on or perhaps to play on when they should meld out.

For example, suppose your side has melded three red threes but that the opponents have many more melds than your side and have control of the discard pile. You are torn high ways in this situation. You want to meld out in order to prevent the opponents from scoring too many points; and you want to continue the hand in the hope of drawing the fourth red three.

If, in this situation, an opponent draws a red three and fails to put it down promptly, this act may induce you to continue the hand where your best course is to meld out.

PETER EDSON'S WASHINGTON NEWS NOTEBOOK

Private Watchdogs in Capital Lose Bread 'n' Butter in GOP Era

WASHINGTON (NEA) Private industry public relations offices in Washington are singing the blues, and losing their clients one at a time. Reason being given is that the out-of-town manufacturers and merchandisers who have felt that they needed a private eye in Washington to keep track of what was going on, no longer need this service.

With the Republicans in charge, businessmen say they no longer have to worry about what goes on in the White House, at the Capitol, and in the independent regulatory agencies.

Office of Price Stabilization and Wage Stabilization Board are now completely gone, so nobody has to bother about their regulations and rulings. Enterprise at last is free.

The big national corporations are of course keeping their Washington watchdogs and public relations offices going. It's the little lobbying offices, the press agents with two or three or a dozen out-of-town clients for whom they used to write confidential letters—who are suffering. Some of them have gone over to the White House or GOP headquarters, to apply for government jobs.

BURMA DEAD NOT AMERICANS

Best evidence now available is that the white men whom the Chinese Communists claim they killed or captured on the Burma border may have been European deserters from the French Foreign Legion troops in Indo-China.

The possibility that these white men were Americans, assigned by the U. S. government to aid the 10,000 Chinese Nationalist troops in guerrilla activities against the Chinese Communists is ruled out.

The Communists have claimed for propaganda purposes that the U. S. government was backing this guerrilla activity. Some American supporters of Chiang Kai-shek have wanted the U. S. government to do so.

But the official attitude of the U. S. government is that the Chinese Nationalist troops who fled into Burma after their defeat by the Communist armies are a threat to international peace and should be gotten out of there.

The government of Burma thinks so too, and has taken its pleas for their evacuation to the United Nations.

tions. The only solution offered thus far is to ship the refugees to Formosa. But some of them don't want to go.

COMPLIMENTARY GLADIATORS

Sen. Paul Douglas of Illinois, who is over six feet tall, and Sen. Price Daniel of Texas, who is much shorter, got into an argument during the tidelands oil bill debate.

Senator Daniel, an attorney general in Texas before he came to Washington, has fought the tidelands battle for many years and is an expert on all its angles. In taking him on for debate, Senator Douglas began by saying: "I feel as though I were a third-rate prizefighter being sent in against the champ."

"I thank the senator from Illinois for his flattering remarks," replied Daniel. "I stand ready now for the senator's blows."

COMIC RELIEF

All this tidelands debate was deadly serious, and deep-dish legal argument, but there were a few moments of comic relief. At one point in the middle of a six-hour speech, Senator Douglas said he noticed two senators "straining at the leash" to ask him questions.

Senator Holland of Florida was recognized, and observed he "didn't feel quite like that about the matter."

"There was," replied Douglas. "No canine allusion intended."

ALL'S RIGHT IN THE END

While Charles E. Bohlen took quite a beating from the 13 U. S. senators who opposed confirmation of his appointment as U. S. ambassador to Soviet Russia, the former State Department counselor and career man came out of the battle well satisfied with the result.

Ambassador Bohlen didn't have to take any part in the controversy, or lead any fight for his own confirmation. So he still has a clean and clear, non-political record. He got good support from the press, which proved that there still is freedom of the press.

Seventy-four senators voted for his confirmation in spite of all the uproar. And that was proof to Bohlen of the soundness of the American democratic system. The country can go through one of these minor revolutionary mud-slinging fights and still come up with the right answers.

BACK TO SNAKE PIT

With the election of Judge and ex-Congressman Leonard W. Hall of New York as Republican National Committee Chairman, C. Wesley Roberts of Kansas, forced to resign from the GOP chairmanship by a Kansas political feud, has packed up his bags and left Washington.

He and Mrs. Roberts will take a vacation for a couple of weeks. This will be the first time they've been together that long since the Eisenhower campaign began. It is Roberts' first rest since then.

After the vacation, they'll go back home to Kansas. "to see how things rack up," as Wes expresses it. "I've probably got some snake killing to do," he says.

QUICKLY DONE FOR

In posing for photographers with his arm around Wes Roberts' shoulders before the National Committee, Judge Hall recalled a statement by Rep. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania. It was right after Scott had been forced to resign as GOP chairman early in 1949. Scott's statement was quotation of the inscription on a child's tombstone in an old graveyard:

"I was so quickly done for."

I wonder what I was begun for."

WATCH FOR RUSSIAN HEROICS

One of the things to watch for in Russian propaganda is which of the new leaders they start playing up as the top man. So far, the Voice of Moscow has continued to extol Stalin as the great leader. But having a hero and hero-worship are part and parcel of the Communist book of tricks.

When the propagandists start playing up pictures and statements from Malenkov—or Beria or Molotov or some other figure—then and only then will it be known who has emerged as top dog in the Soviet struggle for power.

Voice of the People

Dixon Evening Telegraph:

It's a curious truth, that no fact is so plain, strong or essential as something you actually see or find out yourself. The city council and entire community have on several different occasions been informed of the fact and the necessity of a full, complete outfit of a paid fire and police department on the north side, but never before did it seem so necessary as when L. G. Welch, city commissioner of public property was himself caught in the traffic jam that resulted from a long switch train blocking the traffic on both Galena avenue and Peoria avenue bridges Tuesday, April 13. Then he, too, thought of the possibility of a fire.

Now suppose his own home had been on fire at that time. No one can tell just what his thought or action would have been, but I am sure he would have realized the absolute need of a complete paid fire and police department on the north side. Now take action, do it at once. Don't wait for a calamity, accident or loss. Do it now. Another thing we have needed in Dixon for 60 years is a big, long, strong high bridge at Lincoln avenue.

With one there now, then that traffic jam could have been eased up in a few minutes, in fact there would not have been so large a jam.

The railroads are not to blame, they are doing a swell job of handling all that vast amount of incoming and outgoing freight. Back in the early days of the local switch trade only the C&NW had a local switch engine, and business was so slim on the downtown line that on many days the switch engine did not come downtown and if any merchant needed a car moved to another location, it was necessary to telephone the C&NW freight office and ask to have the switch engine sent down.

Now let's all pull together for a new complete unit of paid fire and police department on the north side before we have a big fire or a bad accident, when ambulances could not get to the accident or the hospital. Boost for a new bridge at Lincoln avenue. It would also help relieve the congestion in our downtown area.

More bridges build bigger towns. H. W. Morris

Unselfish Mothers Glad

When Child Goes His Way

The mother was explaining why her young daughter hadn't gone to Girl Scout Camp, though most of the troop were having a first experience living away from home for a few weeks.

With utmost complacency she said: "Linda is such a mother's girl. She would rather stay around the house with me than play with other children."

"So as long as she is perfectly happy at home, I don't see any point in trying to get her interested in going to camp."

That mother loves her daughter a great deal. But it is a pitiful love because there is no courage in it.

It takes firm resolve to begin the slow process of turning children loose, encouraging them to take advantage of opportunities for developing independence instead of keeping them "mama's" children. BEING A GOOD

PARENT TAKES FORTITUDE

It takes a special kind of parental courage to rejoice in the fact a child is learning to think and act for himself, to depend less and less on the parents.

The easy way to love a child is hold him close, make his decisions, avoid worrying by refusing to let him do anything that will cause anxiety.

That kind of love is easy on the parent, hard on the child.

To love a child courageously is hard at times, but it is so very worth while. For there are few things more rewarding in life than to watch your son or daughter develop independence and self reliance.

Polo Bride Dons White Satin Gown

White satin fashioned the floor length gown worn by Miss Evelyn Yingling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Yingling, Polo, to become the bride of Donald Joesten. Donald's parents are the Allen Joestens, Rochelle.

St. Mark's Lutheran church, Polo, was the setting for the early afternoon wedding on the second Sunday of April. Dr. K. E. Irvin officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Two baskets of stephanotis and gladioli were used in the church floral arrangement and the altar vases held stephanotis. Palms and candelabra completed the decoration. Soloist, Robert Hedrick, Polo, was accompanied on the organ by Miss Joan Herrstrum, Polo.

Pearls Are Gift

Given in marriage by her father, the lovely bride was attired in a dress designed with a lace peplum extending from the front to the back, V neckline, long sleeves, pointed at the wrist and a stand-up collar of lace over satin. Her fingertip veil of nylon illusion was attached to a rhinestone tiara and she carried a pinacle styled bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis. Evelyn's gift from the bridegroom was a necklace and earrings of pearl.

As matron of honor Mrs. Willis Brantner, Polo, wore a blue taffeta frock. Her gown had a nylon tulle net overskirt and was worn with a bolero jacket. She carried a soft colonial bouquet of yellow feathered carnations and stephanotis. Evelyn's gift from the bridegroom was a necklace and earrings of pearl.

Miss Fay Haefner, Dixon, bridesmaid, wore a yellow taffeta dress fashioned with a nylon tulle net overskirt and bolero jacket. Her soft colonial bouquet was of blue feathered carnations and stephanotis. Her headpiece matched her bouquet. She, too, received a gold bracelet from the bride.

Willis Brantner, Polo, served as best man and Melvin Joesten, Rochelle, was his brother's groomsmen. Ushering were Lawrence Yingling, Polo, brother of the bride, and Allen Joesten Jr., Rochelle, the bridegroom's brother.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Yingling wore a rose colored crepe dress with navy blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore pink accessories with her crepe dress of medium blue. Their corsages were of starlike carnations. The bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Mattie Willfang, wore a corsage of white carnations.

Reception in Church
A reception in the church basement followed the wedding ceremony. Marilyn Smallwood had charge of the guest book; Misses Bonnie Freeberg and Norma Eddie and Mrs. Edwin Yingling served; Miss LaVerne Yingling poured; Miss Mary Ellen Gersbers and Miss Gloria Kurz had charge of the gifts and Mrs. Lawrence Yingling cut the cake.

When the newlyweds departed for their wedding trip to Florida and New York the bride wore a pink linen suit with black velvet accessories. Her white carnation corsage was from her bridal bouquet. Upon returning they will reside on Rt. 2, Oregon.

A graduate of Polo high school and Brown's Business college, Freeport, the bride was employed by Jones and Jones, attorneys at law. The bridegroom, who graduated from Rochelle high school, attended Northern Illinois State Teachers college, DeKalb, two years and Bradley university for a year. Having been recently discharged from the army after two years service, one in Germany, he is now employed by the American Express Co., Rochelle.

Attend Wedding
Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Yingling, Las Cruces, New Mex., where he is stationed with the army.

Teen Tips on Glamour By DEE DEE DEB

The problem of a glamorous figure, is one that troubles many girls. Some girls feel that obtaining a "cute" figure, as the saying goes, is an impossibility.

Let's take little Miss "Plump" first. None of her clothes look right on her and she is very unhappy. Perhaps if she wouldn't eat so many sweets and stop eating in between meals, her problem wouldn't be half as difficult. Maybe a quick check-up with her physician can detect whether her problem is sweets or glandular trouble.

Now for the lank and lean lassie—how to make curves out of angles and dimples out of dents—You should do just the opposite of your plump sister. You should eat in between meals, but remember don't go hog wild for chocolate, because it will play havoc on your complexion. Eat plenty of foods like milk, butter, potatoes, and sugars.

After you've plumped up to the weight and size which looks best in your mirror—and after you plump gals have tapered off those bulges—you too will find that you have a glamorous figure.

Sen. Morse Charges Press Is Distorting News Stories

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore) has charged that much of the nation's press is distorting the news and has urged the American Society of Newspaper Editors to "ponder it well."

"The people are losing confidence in the objectivity and accuracy of the American press," Morse told the Senate Thursday in a debate on Hell's Canyon dam project in Idaho.

He said he has been "smeared" for what he called a liberal.

Question Accuracy

During debate in 1947 on the Taft-Hartley Labor Relations bill, Morse said, he made a speech in which he questioned the scientific accuracy of public opinion polls.

"I answered the arguments that all the polls of public opinion showed that public opinion seemed to support the Taft-Hartley bill," he said.

Without quoting the actual language he used in the 1947 speech, Morse said:

"In that 1947 speech I said 'if I were satisfied that every man and woman in the state of Oregon wanted me to vote for this bill, I would still vote against it, because it will not carry out the objectives that the voters in my state believe it will carry out.'"

He continued:

"From that 2½ hour speech, Mr. President, the only thing the Associated Press got into the newspapers in my state was this:

"Morse says that if every man and woman in the state of Oregon, wanted him to vote for this bill, he still would vote against the bill."

Raps AP

"Not one word did the AP put out in that story to give the true picture of the position the senator from Oregon took in his speech."

"I have received that sort of treatment from the AP time and time again since I have been a member of the Senate. They have twisted and distorted the position I have taken, or they have so editorialized my statements in their stories that they have done me great damage in my state, because people read the story and because they saw the initials 'AP' at the head of the story they assumed that the story was accurate."

The AP Account

Morse's 1947 speech was delivered June 5. The AP account of June 5 said: "Senator Morse told the Senate he will vote against the bill and to sustain a veto, if one comes."

"He said he would do so even if every person in the state of Oregon wanted it to become law."

"Morse contended it will be causative, not preventive, of labor difficulties" and added that Con-

Heifetz Attacked In Israel

JERUSALEM, Israel (AP)—An unidentified assailant attacked world-famed violinist Jascha Heifetz with an iron bar early today and wounded his right hand slightly, shortly after the American musician played a sonata by German composer Richard Strauss.

Doctors advised Heifetz, now touring Israel, to cancel his concert at Rehovoth tonight, but he said he would play on schedule and also at Tel Aviv Saturday.

Music of German composers is unwelcome in Israel because of the Nazi ban on works by Jews. Strauss, who died in 1949 at 85, was president from 1933 to 1935 of the Nazi music chamber under propaganda minister Paul Josef Goebbels.

Doctors indicated that Heifetz' injury was not serious. According to rumor, the famed violinist's hands are insured for $300,000.

The attack was made as Heifetz stepped from a taxi in front of the King David hotel, after receiving an ovation from the capacity audience attending his concert. The violinist said his assailant said a few words to him, apparently in Hebrew, which he did not understand.

Police searched the area but were unable to find the attacker.

$285,000 PR FUND

BONN, Germany (AP)—The West German government has allotted $285,000 to a New York public relations firm for the year starting July 1. The government says the purpose is "to develop understanding for the German political, social, cultural and economic problems."

German officials say their spending in the United States is modest compared to that of other nations. The United States itself is spending 26 millions a year for informational outlets in Germany.

LUNG AILING

LONDON (AP)—Actress Vivien Leigh now is being treated for "recurrence of a lung complaint," her agent has announced. Miss Leigh, wife of actor Sir Laurence Olivier, was treated for tuberculosis for several months in a hospital in 1945.

FATAL FACTORY FIRE—Smoke billows from the Haber Screw Machine Co. factory on Chicago's north side (861 W. North Ave.) which was one of two Chicago fires which resulted in nearly a score of deaths. A deputy fire marshal said he counted 12 bodies on the second floor of the five-story building. The fire, which followed an explosion, was fanned by high winds. (AP wirephoto)

Testifies Some Justices Split Fines and Fees

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP)—A former Waterloo, Ill., justice of the peace recommended that receipts be required for all fines after telling a group of state legislators some rural justices of the peace split fines with constables rather than give the money to the county.

William F. Morton, who said he resigned three months ago "in disgust" told a joint legislative committee Thursday, "Quite a few justices fine out-of-townners rather heavily and then split the fee with the constables."

Morton also suggested a circuit-riding system for justices in rural areas where there are not enough cases to provide a living.

St. Clair County Judge C. C. Dreman told the group that 16 of 46 justices in the county reported no fines levied during 1952.

The committee, headed by Sen. James W. Gray of East St. Louis, is studying operation of justice of peace courts with the intention of recommending legislative reforms.

The U. S. Bureau of Reclamation collects about 43 million dollars a year from the sale of power.

Explorations for oil in western states sometimes bring up water instead, but this is often diverted to livestock on range.

President Ike Has 'Slight Case' of Food Poisoning

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower came down Thursday with "a slight case of food poisoning," but an aide said there was no cause for alarm.

The attack developed early in the morning before Eisenhower left Augusta by plane for his foreign policy speech in Washington and an informal talk at Salisbury, N. C.

The President went to bed shortly after he returned here Thursday night. His physician, Dr. Howard Snyder, said Eisenhower was feeling "not so hot."

The President himself told newsmen he was feeling "pretty good" as he stepped off his plane and headed for his vacation headquarters at the Augusta National Golf Club.

But he appeared weary and listless after a strenuous 12-hour day, which included tossing out the first baseball at the game in Washington between the Washington Senators and New York Yankees. At a luncheon meeting of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, where he delivered his foreign policy speech, the President passed up food.

James C. Hagerty, his press secretary, said later the President was feeling "under the weather" at that time.

Later, at Salisbury, Hagerty told newsmen Eisenhower had been suffering all day with "a slight attack of food poisoning." The secretary said the President also had been running a slight fever all day. He still had it when he arrived back in Augusta.

Hagerty's announcement regarding the President's indisposition came just as he was starting a brief talk to an audience of about 12,000 persons at Shufford Stadium in Salisbury.

Except for a trace of weariness, the crowd apparently got no suggestion the President was not feeling up to par.

Back in Augusta, Hagerty said in reply to newsmen's questions that there was no cause for alarm. He added that no one knew for sure what food Eisenhower had eaten to cause the attack. Hagerty said no other member of the Eisenhower family was ill.

General Lafayette, the Frenchman who served under George Washington, received $200,000 from Congress.

Perrine, Head of ICC, Has Plan to Speed Rate Cases

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—The head of the Illinois Commerce Commission says he plans to work out new procedure to expedite telephone rate cases before that body.

George R. Perrine, chairman of the commission, urged small telephone companies to keep "current figures on property valuation at all times instead of only when petitions for rate increases are being made."

This, Perrine said in a speech Thursday before the annual convention of the Illinois Telephone Association, would speed proceedings.

Perrine said Illinois telephone companies are getting a rate of return about one per cent less than those in other states.

'No-Man' Hill Hit By Red Infantry

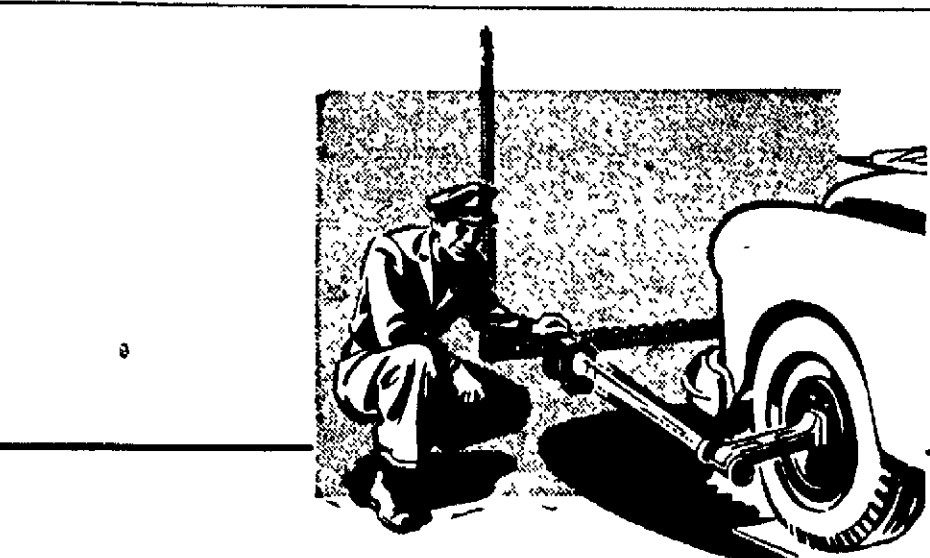

SEOUL (AP)—For 30 minutes Chinese Red Infantrymen attacked the Western Front hill with rifles, machineguns, mortar and artillery fire.

Allied troops watching from other hills Thursday night said it looked like a major assault.

The Reds had it all their own way, but that wasn't surprising—there weren't any Allied troops there.

More than four million kilowatts of hydro-electric capacity were installed by the U. S. Reclamation Bureau in its first 50 years.

Dixon Tennis Team Drops First Match to W. Rockford

Joe Cushing Wins Lone Duke Match

West Wins, 4½-1½; Doubles Eliminated Because of Cold

ROCKFORD—Dixon high school's tennis team absorbed its first setback of the season last night when the Dukes bowed to West Rockford, 4½ to 1½, in a match shortened by darkness.

Joe Cushing won the only match for Dixon, besting Jim Pohle of West Rockford. Cushing, a junior, dropped the first set 2-6, but then came on to take the second set 8-6 and the third, 6-2.

John Young won the first set from Joe Jones of Dixon, but the match was called at that point and it was ruled a tie.

Henry Utley, number one man, and Bennie Sage, number two, each extended their opponents to three sets before bowing out.

Utley lost the first set 6-2 but came back to win the second by the same score. His opponent, Julian Bruening, won the third set and the match, 6-4.

Sage lost his first set to Sam Needham, 6-3 but won the second 6-4 before dropping the match by losing the third set, 6-4.

Norman Glenn and Jack Hipple lost their matches in straight sets.

The summary:
Bruening (W), defeated Utley (D), 6-2, 2-6, 6-4.
Needham (W) defeated Sage (D), 2-6, 6-4, 6-2.
Cushing (D) defeated Pohle (W), 8-6, 6-2, 6-2.
Young (W) defeated Jones (D), 6-0, (called darkness).
Glenn (W) defeated Glenn (D), 6-3, 6-3.
Hipple (W) defeated Hipple (D), 6-1, 6-3.

Mt. Morris Loses Tennis Match, 7½-1½

ROCKFORD—Mt. Morris opened its tennis season yesterday but East Rockford spoiled the show by handing the Mounders a 7½-1½ setback.

East swept the singles matches and took one of the doubles. Keith Nesemeier and Bill Lundholm of Mt. Morris combined to win the number two doubles from Ronald K. Johnson and Phillip Skinner in straight sets.

In addition, Dick Merwin and Darryl Cory combined to split two sets with Richard Bildahl and Ronald Garthwaite of East in a match called because of darkness. Each team won ½ point for this match.

The summary:
Jordan (E) defeated Merwin (M), 5-7, 6-4, 6-0.
Alexander (E) defeated Cory (M), 6-1, 6-4, 6-0.
Castle (E) defeated Nesemeier (M), 6-0, 6-1, 6-0.
Carlson (E) defeated Lundholm (M), 6-1, 6-0, 6-0.
Hubbard (E) defeated Moore (MM), 6-0, 6-3, 6-0.
Isbell (E) defeated Avery (M), 6-0, 6-4, 6-0.
Merwin and Cory (M), tied Bildahl and Garthwaite (E) 6-1, 5-7. (Called darkness).

Nesemeier and Lundholm (M) defeated Johnson and Skinner (E), 6-3, 6-3, 6-3.
Hubbard and Isbell (E) defeated Moore and Avery (M), 6-0, 6-3.

Sooner's Miler Need 'Drug Store' to Start

NORMAN, Okla. (U) — Bruce (Bulldog) Drummond, Oklahoma's crack miler who tied the record at the Texas relays with 4:12.3, needs a "whole drug store" to get started.

That's the word of Drummond's coach, John Jacobs, who confided: "Bulldog wears fitted arch supports in his track shoes and rubs himself down with an old pepper sauce bottle."

"He likes to sniff a liquid inhaler up his nose, nibble on a piece of dextrose, and wear his running trunks so loose around the waist that they almost fall off him."

"He takes his warmup exercises in a furnace room. He keeps himself greased with balm. But he sure gets in there and runs."

'56 Olympic Site Problem Of Committee

MEXICO CITY (U) — The International Olympic Committee sessions open today amid friction over selection of Melbourne as the site of the 1956 games.

Australia's strict quarantine on the importation of horses loomed as a stumbling block which could cost Melbourne the Olympic games.

Australia's law prohibits entry of horses unless they have spent six months either in Ireland or Great Britain.

There was little likelihood Australia would lift its ban.

Australian delegates suggested that equestrian events either (1) be eliminated, or (2) be moved to another country.

Tom Sharkey, 79, Last Ring Great of '90s, Dies

SAN FRANCISCO (U) — Tom Sharkey, 79, barrel-chested battler, who was the last of the prize ring greats of the 1890s, died today.

The game little slugger, who had won $250,000 fighting John L. Sullivan, Jim Corbett, Bob Fitzsimmons and others, died broke — but not forgotten.

He had been in San Francisco City and County Hospital since August, 1952. His friends — fighters, promoters, old-time newsmen and followers — chipped in to pay his expenses.

Doctors said Sharkey "died easily in his sleep" at 3:15 a.m.

He was admitted Jan. 31 for the tenth time for treatment of a heart ailment.

Never Won Title
His death rang down the curtain on a long-gone era of pugilism. It followed closely Jeffries—Sharkey's greatest rival — who died in Los Angeles March 3.

Sharkey never won a title, but he slugged it out with the best in 31 years in the ring, starting in 1893. He used to boast that he was "afraid of no man — none ever made me take a backward step."

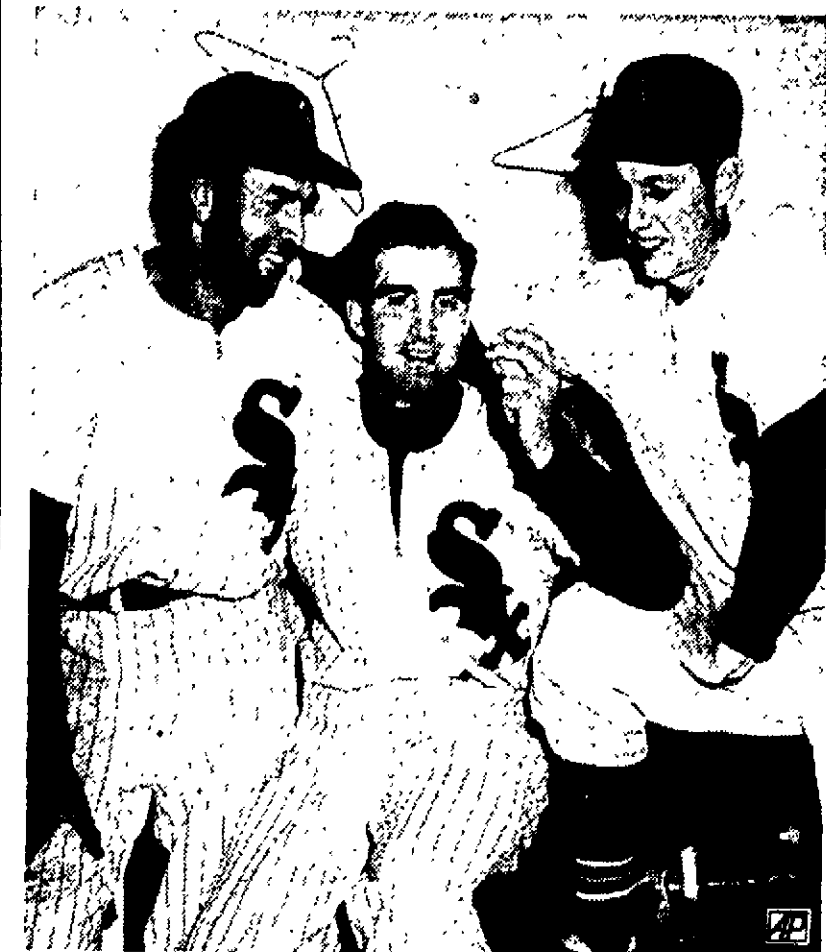

The cocky, Irish-born boxer stood 6 feet, 8½ inches and in fighting trim weighed between 180 and 185 — about 30 pounds less than most of his heavyweight rivals. In 54 fights, he scored 35 knockouts and was knocked out only once — by Fitzsimmons in 1900. Four years before he won an eight-round bout by Fitz.

25 Rounds
The same year he fought a four-round draw with Corbett and a three-round no-decision bout with Sullivan. In 1899, he lost a close 20-round decision to the champion, Jeffries, and won on a ninth-round bout by Corbett.

That led to his biggest battle, a 25-round title match with Jeffries at Coney Island, Nov. 3, 1899. Jeffries was taller, heavier and had a longer reach, but Sharkey stood up under his heaviest blows for the full distance — getting his ribs stove in doing it. He lost the decision.

Sharkey started his ring career in the U. S. Navy, running up a string of 14 knockouts at Honolulu in 1893. He retired in 1904 after a six-round, no-decision bout with Jack Munroe in Philadelphia.

Mounders Open With Track Win

FORRESTON (Special)—Darrell Corbett scored four firsts as the Mt. Morris track team opened its season yesterday with an 82½-35½ victory over Forreston.

The Mounders swept 11 of the 14 first places and tied in one other. Jay Hoffman in the discus and Don DeWall in the 880-yard run, were the only Forreston winners.

Corbett won the shot put, 70 yard high hurdles, 100 yard dash and the 100 yard low hurdles and then ran a leg of the Mounders winning 880 yard relay team.

O'Connor of Mt. Morris was a double winner, taking firsts in the high jump and the pole vault, although he was tied in both events, by teammate Dick Spink in the high jump and by Dave DeGraff of Forreston in the pole vault.

Spink also won the broad jump. The next varsity meet for the Mounders is at Polo, Tuesday, but the freshmen-sophomores will join Oregon's underclassmen tonight at Polo.

Forreston returns to the cinderparks Wednesday when the Cardinals are host to Winnebago. Tuesday the thinclads will shed their track clothes in favor of baseball uniforms when they travel to Leaf River.

The summary:
Broad jump—Won by Spink (MM); 2, Markman (F); 3, H. Smith (F). Distance—19' 4".

540 yard relay—Won by Mt. Morris (McNett, Spink, Corbett, Martin). Time—1:48.

British Champion Favored to Stop Bruton Tonight

NEW YORK (U) — Gerry Dreyer, an obscure welter a year ago, returns with the British welterweight boxing championship tonight to meet Phil Burton of St. Louis in a 10-rounder at St. Nicholas arena.

The South African is a prohibitive favorite in the bout, scheduled for 9 p.m. (CST) radio and television treatment.

Dreyer, 23, has won 32 of 33 starts. He was knocked out once and has stopped 15 opponents.

Burton, 26, with a 44-28-6 record, never has been stopped and has scored 15 knockouts.

Pierce Hurls One Hitter as Chisox Win

Young Doubles in 6th to Ruin No-Hit Hopes in 1-0 Win

By The Associated Press
Bobby Young, who plays second base for the St. Louis Browns, specializes in ruining no-hit games.

Billy Pierce was baffling the Browns Thursday in the Chicago White Sox home opener at Comiskey park. After six hitless innings Dick Kokos walked to start the St. Louis Seventh but he was cut down trying to steal. Up came Young, a .347 left-handed hitter facing a southpaw pitcher.

Nothing to worry about here thought the chilled gathering of 11,354. Then Young spanked a solid double into right center field to break the spell. Without the thwarted steal it might have been a run.

Score Without Hit
As it was the White Sox scored without a hit in the bottom of the seventh and Pierce finished up with a 1-0 one hitter. He had to be that good because his mates got only two singles off Harry Brecheen, the National league veteran who was making his American league debut.

Young pulled the same spoiling act last year when he tripped to ruin Bobby Feller's bid for a fourth no hitter. That time Young scored the only run.

The Chicago pitchers' battle was a sharp contrast to most of the other games Thursday. Pittsburgh and Philadelphia combined for 24 runs in two innings as the Pirates edged the Phils, 11-2. The Boston Red Sox clubbed four Philadelphia pitchers for 19 hits in whipping the Athletics, 11-6. Cleveland outlasted the Detroit Tigers, 11-8. President Eisenhower tossed out the first ball at Washington and then watched the New York Yankees score four runs in the first inning to mar the occasion for the Senators, who finally lost, 6-3.

Good pitching did prevail in a night battle between the other Chicago and St. Louis clubs as the Cards whipped the Cubs in St. Louis, 3-0.

Postpone Three
The night half of the day-night doubleheader in Washington was called off because of cold weather and rain cancelled National league contests in New York between the Giants and Brooklyn and in Cincinnati where Milwaukee was scheduled to play.

Larry Doby drove in five Cleveland runs—two on a home run and two more with a single that put the Indians ahead of Detroit to stay in the sixth inning. Mike Garcia, a 22-game winner for Cleveland last year, lasted only four innings.

Washington collected nine hits off Johnny Sain but wasted a hatful of opportunities in losing to the Yankees.

Nine Run Inning
It's hard to lose a game after you score nine runs in one inning but that's what the Phils did in Pittsburgh. The Pirates scored a run in the first and the Phils went ahead with two in the fourth. Pittsburgh came back with seven in the fourth to lead, 8-2. Philadelphia responded with nine in the fifth to go back into the lead only to have Pittsburgh score six more in the fifth including a three run homer by Danny O'Connell.

Pint-sized Harvey Haddix, one of the rookies Cardinal Manager Eddie Stanky is counting on heavily, gave up only four hits to the Cubs and Enos Slaughter made it easy for him by hitting a home run with Stan Musial on base.

Nelson Hurls No-Hitter As Ashton Beats Steward

Aces Score 2-1 Win in First Tilt

Nelson Fans 15, Strawbridge 13 In Pitchers' Duel

By NORM JOLLOW
Telegraph Sports Editor

ASHTON—Larry Nelson pitched no-hit ball and drove in one run as the Ashton Aces won a 2-1 verdict over Steward yesterday.

Neil Strawbridge, Nelson's mound opponent, scored the only run off Nelson in the second, when he walked, stole second, went to third on a bad throw to second and scored on an error by the centerfielder.

A strong wind swept in across home plate from right field which seemed to help the pitchers, though it cost them some effectiveness in control.

Nelson Doubled
Nelson fanned 15 men while Strawbridge struck out 13. However Nelson walked five and hit one batter while Strawbridge walked six and also hit one.

Only three balls were hit off Nelson. Jerry Houghtly lined out to left field. Charles Hamill grounded to second and Dave Nelson bounced out to Nelson.

Strawbridge was almost as effective as a short fly to left field was the only hit off the Steward hurler other than the two safe hits.

Ashton scored both its runs in the first inning when Larry Henert and John Wisman walked. Nelson stroked a line drive to left field, which went for a ground rule double, to score Henert. After Darryl Vaupel struck out, Larry Butler topped on in front of the plate and was safe at first. Strawbridge picked the ball up and threw wild to second in an attempt to catch Nelson napping. The ball went into centerfield and Wisman crossed the plate with the winning run.

First Loss
It was the first defeat for the Steward Bluejays who last week won an 8-0 decision over Big Rock when Strawbridge struck out 20 of 21 men, gave up one hit and walked five.

Ron Mershon, Steward shortstop, received a bad sprain to his left ankle in the third inning when he caught his spike on the turf while sliding into second with a stolen base. He is expected to be out of action for two weeks.

Order Eisenhower's Talk Relayed Over the World

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States marshaled its far-flung diplomatic and information services today to build worldwide support for President Eisenhower's new peace challenge to Russia.

Ambassadors and ministers in 70-odd countries were instructed to call to the attention of the governments to which they are assigned the President's address before the American Society of Newspaper Editors here Thursday.

Major Speech
They were expected to emphasize the pronouncement as a major foreign policy declaration of the new Eisenhower administration.

The Voice of America radio system was operating under a directive to handle the speech fully in 45 languages. English broadcasts carried the President's own voice to Europe, the Middle East and Latin America, and rebroadcasts to the Far East Thursday night.

But there is no real sureness among officials here whether the Kremlin will hold to its recent line of soft talk. Some authorities would not be too surprised if the Communists decline to make any real concessions on the prisoner of war exchange issue if true negotiations resume in Korea.

Pravda Reaction
The first Russian reaction to the speech was hardly favorable. The Communist party paper Pravda said Eisenhower had blamed Soviet policies for current world tensions, "though no facts were given to prove this."

The President said truce in Korea was the first step on the road to peace, and on this point Washington and Moscow appear to be in agreement. But then, after listing such other steps as peace in Asia and German and Austrian treaties, the President called for an end to Soviet domination over the satellites of Eastern Europe. That, he said, would be one of the final measures leading up to disarmament and, ultimately, the creation of a world aid fund to which he said the U. S. would contribute a large part of its savings from disarmament.

No Understanding
There is not even a common understanding between the Kremlin and the White House that the Eastern European satellite states are a problem. The Soviets take the position that the fate of these nations as Communist states is settled once and for all. The Eisenhower administration contends there can be no final East-West agreements until the power of the Kremlin has receded to the borders of Russia.

The problem the administration faced, and which it will face for the indefinite future, is on the one hand to encourage and press the Kremlin in every possible way to work for peace and on the other hand, to prevent a let-down in Western strength and unity which may eventually compel the Kremlin to make real adjustments.

Youth Who Cut Off Arm Released From Hospital

HATTIESBURG, Miss. (AP)—The 26-year-old mechanic who amputated his left arm with a penknife left the hospital in good spirits and said he plans to rest a while before attending Mississippi Southern College.

Carl Creel, recently discharged from the Army, cut off his arm between the wrist and elbow to free himself from the wreckage of his automobile. The car had overturned and he was afraid that it would catch fire. The car did not burn.

MARITAL PREVIEW — Bob McQueeney, 25, of Cleveland, Ohio, is feeling the ball and chain even before he's married. The gag is a standard procedure when workers in the industrial plant where he works are about to be married. He was stuck with the ball and chain overnight before his wedding. There's one consolation, however, he got a big wedding gift from his co-workers.

Bird-Smuggling Biggest Racket, Says Attorney

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—A U.S. attorney expressed belief today that bird smugglers are doing a bigger business in this country than narcotics smugglers.

Morris Sankary of the federal legal staff here said that virtually all of the birds of quality in the parrot and parakeet family are smuggled into this country through Mexico.

He announced the arrest of three persons he said were members of an international smuggling ring.

"In a million dollar operation handling 70,000 birds annually."

The birds can't come into the United States legally—except as not-for-sale pets and then only one pair for each owner.

The commercial ban is due to psittacosis (parrot fever) which can be fatal to humans.

Snow Forecast for Some Portions of Middlewest

By The Associated Press
Mid-April's cold and wet weather continued its unwelcome stay over the Midwest and Rocky Mountain areas today. Another spring snowstorm appeared on the way for several sections.

Snow fell early today in parts of Wyoming, Colorado, Montana, the Dakotas and Nebraska and headed for the Midwest. The weather bureau in Kansas City issued a special warning for heavy snow in North and West Kansas and Western Nebraska—with an accumulation of from three to six inches.

Snow also was in prospect for parts of Iowa, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Temperatures dropped to near zero in North Dakota early today with a reading of 8 above at Minot. Readings generally were below 20 degrees in the Far Northern Plains states and the northern sections of the Upper Mississippi Valley.

Dust clouds whipped up by strong winds Thursday in the Eastern Dakotas and Western and Central Minnesota extended into Southeastern Minnesota and Southwestern Wisconsin today. Visibility was cut to less than three miles in some places.

Burning Derelict Adrift Off Coast

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The burning British freighter Menestheus is a derelict today, adrift off Lower California 600 miles south of here.

Its skipper and 80 crewmen were rescued early Thursday after fire broke out in the engine room by the American ship Navajo Victory.

The Navajo Victory is due in San Diego Saturday afternoon. There were no casualties among the Menestheus' crewmen.

Canal Commission in Second Day of Pleas

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Illinoisans interested in preserving the Illinois-Mississippi Canal area for recreational purposes went into a second round of conferences today.

The Illinois - Mississippi Canal and Snimissippi Lake Commission had dates this morning with Eng. Gen. B. L. Robinson of the Army Corps of Engineers and this afternoon with Secretary of the Interior McKay.

Chairman Orville G. Chapman and other members of the bipartisan legislative commission Thursday began their discussions with Interior Department officials.

Will Aid Study

National Parks Service Director Conrad Wirth and Albert M. Day, director of the Fish and Wildlife Service, both said their agencies would cooperate in a study to see what could be done with the canal area.

Wirth, however, said the area probably "would not qualify" as a national park.

The commission also had appointments today with Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) and Dirksen (R-Ill.). Douglas told a reporter Thursday he favors recreational development of the canal and Snimissippi Lake in the Rock River "provided it can be done without undue expense to the federal government."

He added: "I believe in local self-government. It seems to me that this is something that could be worked out through the joint effort of the federal and state governments."

Allen Supports It

Rep. Allen (R-Ill.) threw his "full support behind the national park idea and had something to say on the cost:

"From most reliable sources I have learned that it would cost the federal government as much to abandon the area and put it back in its original state as it would to develop it as a national park providing recreation and conservation facilities."

Allen said such facilities would serve "over a million people residing in Northwest Illinois, Eastern Illinois, Eastern Iowa and Southern Wisconsin."

He said there would be "irreparable damage and a menace to the health of thousands" if the canal area were abandoned.

Chapman also said it should be federal responsibility and other commission members agreed.

Collins Speaks

State Sen. Dennis Collins declared, the "federal government created the canal, brought many changes in the area, and caused heavy investments in property. The federal government is under a strong moral obligation not to abandon it."

The Army Corps of Engineers in 1951 announced plans to abandon the canal, which was built in 1907 for navigation.

Thomas Casey, Illinois director of waterways, said the canal now is "obsolete for transportation."

Glen D. Palmer, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation, and Sam Parr, his assistant, also pleaded for preservation of the area.

"We would like to have your support to see it maintained by a federal agency," Parr told Day.

Grandstander!

NEW YORK — (AP) — The acrobats of the circus received unexpected competition Thursday night from a customer at Madison Square Garden.

Celso R. Lorenzo, 33, arose from his front-row second balcony seat in the midst of the show of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey circus.

He stepped across the guard-rail, seized an overhead wire in the rigging for trapezes and other equipment, and swung out hand over hand for nearly 40 feet.

Once clear of the first balcony and the main level seats, Lorenzo clung to the wire with one hand and waved to the audience with the other. Then he fell 50 feet to the arena floor.

A stretcher was used to carry him to the Garden's first aid room, but Lorenzo after an examination walked smilingly to an ambulance.

Doctors said he had suffered only possible rib fractures. He was taken to the psychiatric ward at Bellevue hospital. Police said he evidently had been drinking.

Ike's Call of Red Hand Wins Round in Cold War

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — Even if the Russians reject President Eisenhower's peace proposals, which they probably will, he has won a round in the psychological war.

The Russians have been mumbling about peace for a month. And Eisenhower has called their bluff. If they stall or do nothing, this country can use his offer for propaganda against the Russians.

Reaction in Congress to the speech Eisenhower made Thursday shows mostly approval and pleasure that he took such a definite stand but not much optimism that the Russians would accept.

The Russians had previously blocked most of what he suggested as steps to peace and disarmament. For instance, signing an Austrian peace treaty and unification of Germany.

It is difficult to see them going along with the brand new proposal he made: Once the nations agreed on disarmament they should take a chunk of the money saved on arms and put it into a fund for raising the living standards of people in backward and depressed areas on a world scale.

That would make people less hungry and discontented. The Communists, except when they use force as they did in Korea, have to depend on hunger and discontent to spread their doctrine.

Eisenhower proposed terms for world disarmament, using the basic conditions which were worked out years ago during the Truman administration and upon which this country has stood fast ever since.

But it was on these very points the Russians balked years ago; for instance, on atomic inspection. Before the atomic bomb could be outlawed, Eisenhower made clear, there would have to be a system of checking to be sure there was no cheating.

The Russians, who put up the iron wall between themselves and the rest of the world, have resisted the idea of foreigners poking around inside the Soviet land.

ROTC Grads to Active Duty Soon

WASHINGTON — The army announced today that most Reserve Officers Training Corps graduates who receive their commissions after May 1 will be required to go on active duty before June 30, 1954.

The army said it wanted to give students nearing completion of their college courses ample time to make their plans. Wherever possible it added, individual ROTC officers may choose the month in which they desire to start the two-year duty required.

PERON SMILE DAMPENED LATER BY BOMBS—Argentine President Juan D. Peron (center), smiles from government house balcony in Buenos Aires at mass meeting a short time before bombs were hurled during Peron's speech at the meeting, killing five listeners in the Plaza de Mayo. At left of Peron is Interior Minister Angel Borlenghi. At right of Peron is Major Carlos Aloe, governor of Buenos Aires province. Others are unidentified. Peron was unhurt and after a shocked pause went on with his speech, ad-libbing on the blast and blaming outside and underground enemies for Argentina's troubles. AT HEY BROTHERS DEALERS

To get your money's worth when you buy Television—do three things:

Make sure ALL-CHANNEL RECEPTION is built in the set when you buy it

You want the set you buy today to have everything you'll ever need built right into it now. "Ready" for UHF and VHF reception isn't good enough;

Buy the set that HAS it! Make sure you won't have to replace a tuner strip or add a converter or pay a serviceman to adjust your set each time a new station opens.

Take this valuable check list with you to the store

Before you spend one cent of your good money, you owe it to yourself to find out everything you can about any set you're considering. Read this list. Ask the salesman all these questions. Buy only the set that measures up on every count.

Make the Crosley side-by-side test

FIRST... turn on any other set in your TV dealer's store. Take time to adjust it carefully. Take a good long look at the picture.

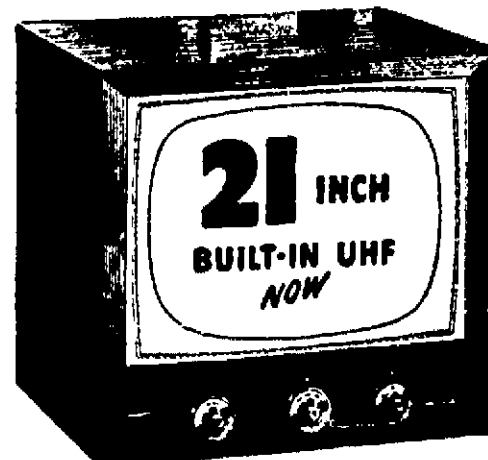

THEN... turn on a Crosley. Notice how you get a clear, steady picture immediately over the entire screen. No fading. No fuzzy edges.

21 INCH BUILT-IN UHF NOW

21-inch Console Television. All-channel (UHF and VHF) reception built in now. Nothing to add. Handsome wood cabinet is mahogany-finished. $349.95* including Federal Tax and Year's Warranty. MODEL EU-21COLU

WHAT TO LOOK FOR WHEN YOU BUY TELEVISION!

ASK THE SALESMAN THESE QUESTIONS

CROSLEY TV

QUESTIONS	CROSLEY TV	SET "A"	SET "B"	SET "C"	SET "D"
1. Will I get every new station that ever comes here? On both UHF and VHF bands? Will I get them without calling in a serviceman, without adding a part, without a converter?	YES Crosley has UHF built right in now. The Crosley you buy today will bring you every station (UHF and VHF) that ever comes here as soon as it comes... at a turn of your dial.
2. Is the cabinet made of wood? Authentically styled furniture I can be proud to own?	YES Every Crosley comes in a fine traditional or modern cabinet of rich grained wood.
3. Do I get a full-year warranty included in the price? Does it cover all chassis parts... not just the picture tube?	YES Crosley's warranty, backed by 30 years' experience in electronics, makes this unusual protection possible.
4. Will the set focus itself? Will it stay in focus without fussing?	YES Crosley's Automatic Focus means you get and keep a clear, steady picture right to the edges of the screen.
5. Will I get a good view of the screen from anywhere in the room?	YES Crosley is famous for full-room viewing. You see it all from any angle.
6. Is the set protected against interference by amateur broadcasting?	YES Crosley planned ahead. Recent government release of certain frequencies for amateur use won't affect reception.
7. Can I use household electrical appliances without disturbing the television picture?	YES Special Crosley inside shielding checks interference from appliances... even passing autos, planes.
8. Does the set have a no-glare picture window?	YES Crosley's tilted picture window and anti-glare picture tube save you disturbing reflections.
9. Will the picture always be free of those annoying diagonal white lines? Even when the scene changes from light to dark?	YES Crosley engineers have overcome this problem. You never see "retro" lines on Crosley's clear picture.
10. Is the set completely tested before I buy it?	YES All Crosleys are adjusted to Crosley's test transmitter which provides a superior picture.

Father Trained Son for Crime; Held for Slayings

NEWARK, N. J. (U) — A hard-faced, chain-smoking 15-year-old boy, who told police his father trained him for crime, has admitted a double slaying in a tavern holdup.

Union County Prosecutor Russell Mores said the youth, Michael Monahan, confessed Thursday night to the fatal shooting of a bartender and a patron last month in a $53 holdup in Elizabeth.

The slayings admission followed stories of how he committed about 150 robberies on orders of his ex-convict father, Eugene Monahan, 41, police said.

Murder warrants have been issued against the boy and his father, both of whom have been in custody since Monday.

The boy told police he committed the robberies on his father's orders and that he was beaten if he did not comply.

The robberies netted thousands of dollars, the boy told police, adding that his father let him keep only $2.

The father was described by police as an accomplished law-breaker who has served 13 years in state prison on various charges. He constantly lectured the boy on the tricks of the trade—lock picking, jimmieing windows and shutting off burglar alarms.

The father-son crime setup, police said, had the older man acting as lookout while the boy did the actual breaking and entering.

200 Trucks, Cars Halted For Licenses

KANKAKEE, Ill. (U) — An 11-hour State Police highway blockade Thursday stopped some 200 truck and passenger car drivers in a drive to enforce payment of 1933 license fees.

Police Magistrate Herman Snow said they paid $21,000 in license fees and $1,000 in fines.

State Police set up the blockade at the Washington Avenue Bridge over the Kankakee River and patrolled a 50-mile radius area to make sure no drivers were skirting it.

The budge is a funnel for four busy state highways — 15, 49, 52 and 51.

Twenty-one state policemen and 37 investigators from the Secretary of State's office—which handles licensing of vehicles—took part in the enforcement blockade.

The blockade began 12:01 a.m. Thursday, with officers on duty until 7 a.m. The blockade was resumed at noon and continued until 4 p.m.

Florida Man Convicted of Texas Murder

VAN HORN, Tex. (U) — A Florida man was convicted at Van Horn Thursday of murder in the death of a Michigan man, and the convicting jury recommended the death sentence.

The convicted man, who is to be sentenced later, is Walter Collins Green, 24, of Hialeah, Fla., who was convicted of murder in the slaying of Fred Eldredge, 67, of Williamston, Mich., on Feb. 15 near Van Horn. Eldredge's body was recovered from a gravel pit eight miles west of here Feb. 25.

The Dixon Evening Telegraph Friday, April 17, 1953 Page 14

Bernard Pregler, 20, of St. Paul, Minn., who also is charged in the case, testified that Green shot Eldredge and that he, Green and a man only identified as "Slim" drove Eldredge's car across Texas to Florida. Green and Pregler were arrested in Florida on bad check charges.

FE-UE Wins Election at Harvester

ROC KISLAND, Ill. (U) — The Farm Equipment-United Electrical Workers Union Independent Thursday won a two to one victory over its opposition to represent maintenance and production workers at the International Harvester Farmall Works.

In another election at the plant, which involved 37 electrical workers, the FE-UE lost to AFL International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

The president of FE-UE local 109, John Ducey, said "today's vote opens the way for a member's ship drive which will be launched tomorrow (Friday) to establish a 100 per cent union shop."

In the main election the FE-UE defeated the Employees Cooperative association, also independent, 2,163 to 1,302. At first, the ECA had lined up behind the United Auto Workers (CIO) but the UAW pulled out last week without any explanation.

The FE-UE previously had represented all the workers at Farmall Works.

The ECA, headed by Larry Shaw, petitioned the National Labor Relations board to hold bargaining representative elections.

The plant was involved in an 88-day strike ending last November in which 25,000 union members in eight Midwest Harvester plants had struck.

Actress Files For Separation

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (U) — Jane Withers, the former child actress who married a wealthy Texas oilman, charges cruelty in her separate maintenance suit against William Moss.

"I don't believe in divorce. I never want to divorce Bill because I love him," she told a newsmen.

Her complaint, filed Thursday, said Moss inflicted "force and violence" on her. The suit said it would take $2,057 monthly to support Miss Withers and the three children.

Miss Withers, 27, and Moss, 32, were married here in 1947.

SNOW QUEEN—Hilana Satterlee, of Honolulu, won out over 15 other University of Hawaii co-eds for the title of Snow Queen. She will reign over the Waikiki Snow Festival when the cold white stuff is brought to the famous beach from the top of Mauna Loa, famed volcano.
